

The Arts

Commonweal Theatre

Since 1989 the Commonweal has been the region's premier professional theater company. With a rotating repertory of comedies, dramas, musicals, classics and contemporary plays, the Commonweal has something for everyone. Join us at the Commonweal Theatre in historic Lanesboro!

Drama unfolds where the Root River bends!

Contact us: www.CommonwealTheatre.org

Lanesboro Arts

Lanesboro Arts is a multidisciplinary arts organization activating the people and places of Lanesboro through community programming, professional art galleries, performing arts at the historic St. Mane Theatre, educational activities, public art, and more. Lanesboro Arts is a nationally-recognized leader in utilizing the arts for small town revitalization and community development; its work has been recognized by ArtPlace America, the National Endowment for the Arts, and the Bush Prize for Community Innovation.

Lanesboro Arts Center's year-round programming includes galleries featuring artwork by 90+ regional and nationally acclaimed artists in our Juried Sales and Exhibition Galleries (oil, acrylic, watercolor, pastel, photography, ceramic, wood, glass, metal, fiber, jewelry); 'Art in the Park Annual Father's Day Celebration; Artist Residency Program; Picture Parade art curriculum in elementary schools; gallery tours and artist demonstrations; workshops; Kids Create!; Family Art Projects; Discover Sculpture; Explore Lanesboro medallion walking tours. Events are always free.

Contact us: www.lanesboroarts.org

St Mane Theatre

Lanesboro's historic St. Mane Theatre hosts year-round entertainment: films, music of all flavors (pop, jazz, folk, bluegrass, etc.), literary and theater performances. It's home to a thriving community theater, "Lanesboro Live 2013 Conversation, Comedy & Cool Jams" show, and the "Over the Back Fence" radio show.

The theater is administered by the Lanesboro Arts Center, Many events are free or goodwill donation.

Contact us: www.lanesboroarts.org